

Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy

Your satisfaction with Living Intentionally Services is critical to us.

Plan Fees

Each corresponding month, your account is automatically charged on the same day as the initial transaction date, or on the month's last date if there is no corresponding date (January 31, 2020 Plan renews on February 28, 2020).

Discounts, rebates, and other special offers are only applicable during the initial period of the plan; thereafter, plans renew at their then-current full Plan prices.

If Living Intentionally is unable to renew the Plan due to erroneous or out-of-date credit card information, it may cancel the Plan and these conditions.

The rights provided by these Terms are only valid upon payment of the Plan fees.

Return

You will have seven (7) days prior to the commencement of the Session you have booked to withdraw and obtain a refund. You understand and recognize that, due to the significant time, effort, preparation, and care required to create and/or provide Coaching Services, Living Intentionally is unable to satisfy any claims for a refund of any portion of your money made after that date.

Cancellation

You may cancel your Plan or session by contacting Living Intentionally at: info@livingintentionally.co.uk

Your sessions will continue until the end of your current charge cycle if you discontinue your Plan. For instance, if your credit card is charged on the tenth of the month and you cancel on April 25, you will retain access until the tenth of May.

Refunds

Plan fees are non-refundable; however, you may cancel a renewed Plan within two (2) calendar days of the renewal date and get a full refund of the new Plan fees.
